ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

FOUNDATION.

THIS Royal and National Institution was founded in the year 1822 through the patriotic exertions of John Fane (Lord Burghersh), eleventh Earl of Westmorland, and commenced its public work in 1823 under the direct patronage of His Majesty King George IV., whose interest in its welfare was manifested by an annual subscription of one hundred guineas.

OBJECTS.

The objects of the Academy, as set forth in its Charter, are "to promote the cultivation of the science of music, and to afford facilities for attaining perfection in it by assisting with general instruction all persons desirous of acquiring a knowledge thereof," and by a Supplementary Charter granted December 16th, 1910, the privileges of the Institution were extended so as "to do all and all manner of acts and things whatsoever and wheresoever which shall be necessary for or conducive to the effecting or carrying out the objects of the Royal Academy of Music or which the Board of Directors thereof shall in their discretion consider necessary."

HISTORY.

Eight years after its foundation, his Majesty King George IV. further evinced his interest in the School by granting it a Royal Charter on June 23rd, 1830. His successors, King William IV., Queen Victoria, King Edward VII., King George V. and King Edward VIII. were also Patrons of the Academy, and continued the pecuniary contribution to its funds.

As Prince and Princess of Wales, Their late Majesties King Edward VII. and Queen Alexandra conferred the highest distinction upon the Academy by graciously attending, in person, the Distribution of Prizes in the year 1897, and the present Sovereign, His Majesty King George VI., has indicated his interest in the Institution by heading the list of Royal Patrons.

On the lamented death of the President, H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, in 1900, the Academy was honoured by the gracious acceptance of the Presidentship by H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, K.G.

During the hundred and sixteen years of its existence, the Academy has laboured steadfastly to achieve the objects of its Founders. Its work in the cause of musical education has been carried on with the help of many eminent musicians and lovers of music under the direction of its former Principals, Dr. William Crotch, 1823; Mr. Cipriani Potter, 1832; Mr. Charles Lucas, 1859; Sir William Sterndale Bennett, 1866; Sir George A. Macfarren, 1875; Sir Alexander Campbell Mackenzie, 1888, and Sir John B. McEwen, 1924.

The Royal Academy of Music started with a studentship of only twenty. From that year onwards there has been a steady and continuous increase in the number on the roll. To-day, the direction and guidance of the work of the School require the services of a staff of over one hundred and forty professors.

Of the large number of students who have received their training in the Academy, many have attained to positions of eminence and distinction in all parts of the world.

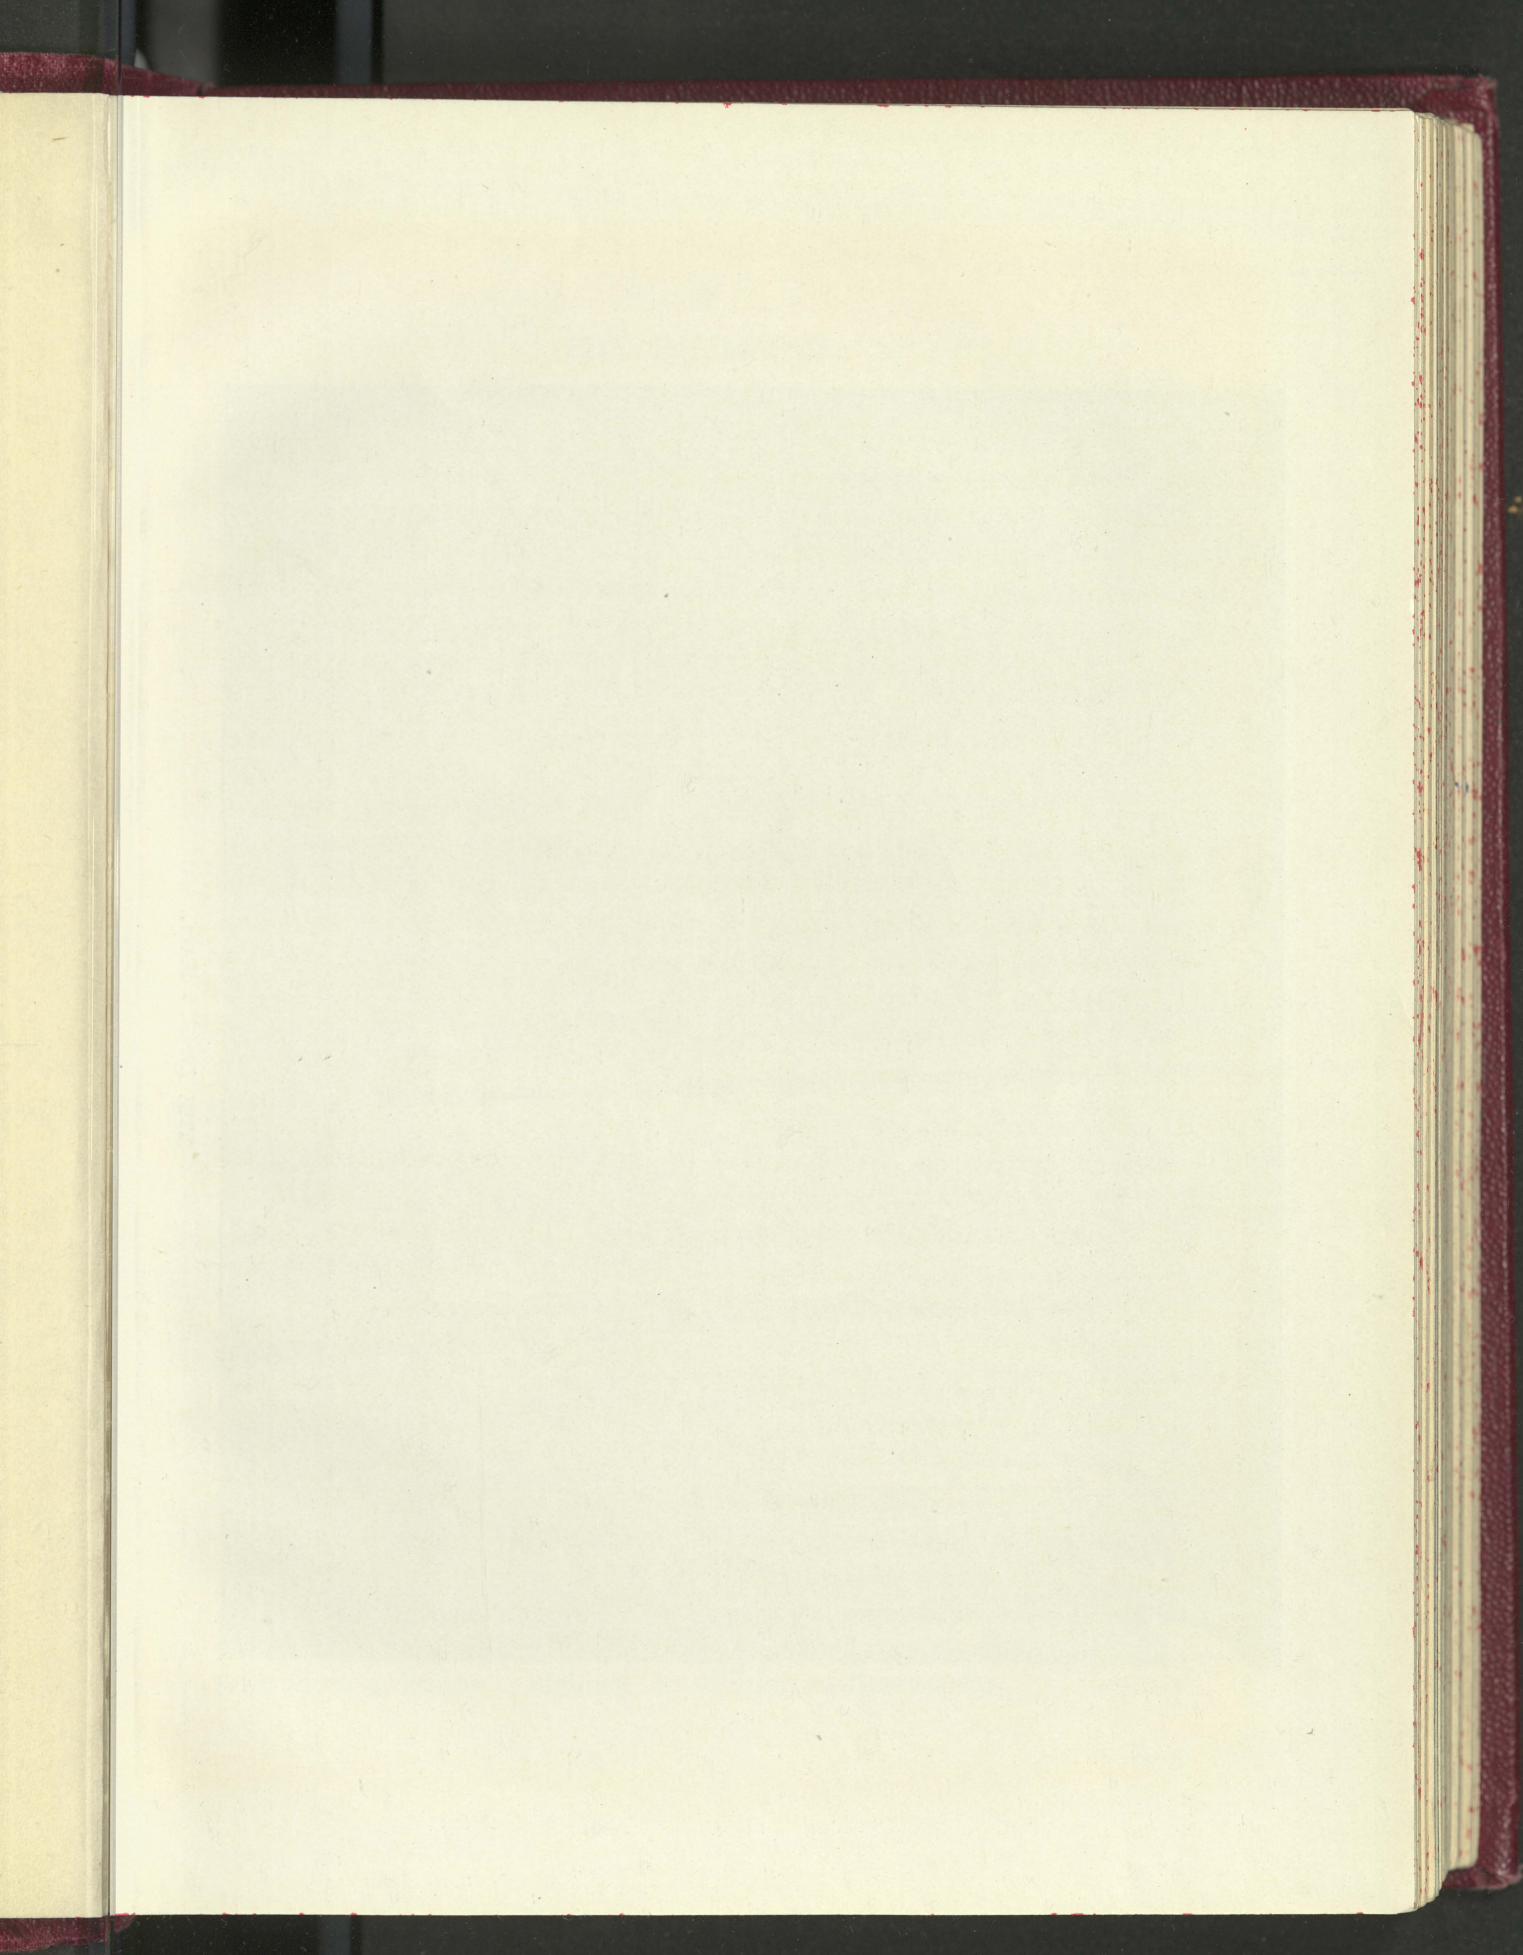

CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNMENT.

The Academy is incorporated by Royal Charters, granted June 23rd, 1830, December 16th, 1910, and January 10th, 1928, and, as provided therein, is governed by a President, four Vice-Presidents, Board of Directors, Committee of Management, Chairman, and Treasurer, all of whom are elected from among the members of the body corporate. Acting under these are the Principal and the executive officials.

Membership in the Corporation is unlimited, and all classes of Subscribing Members are eligible for election on the Directorate and the Committee of Management.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribing Members have the privilege of being present at and of introducing friends to all public concerts and distributions of awards, etc., so far as space and other circumstances permit. Annual subscriptions are due on January 1st. The names of Subscribing Members will be found on pp. 61-67.

THE DUKE'S HALL.

THE BUILDING.

During the period extending from March, 1823, to July, 1911, the work of the Academy was carried on in a house in Tenterden Street, Hanover Square, W. Other houses were added as the number of pupils increased, until six houses were absorbed and no further extension could be made.

The need for more commodious and more suitable premises having become urgent, the Governing Bodies secured a new site in the Marylebone Road, centrally situated and easily reached, being close to the termini of three main lines (viz: The Great Western, London and North Eastern and the London, Midland and Scottish Railways). It is within a few minutes' walk of Baker Street and Regent's Park Tube Stations. Omnibuses and coaches stop opposite the main entrance.

The foundation stone of the new building was laid by the late Lord Strathcona on July 14th, 1910. The work of the Academy was transferred to the new premises in time to begin the Session at Michaelmas, 1911, and the building was formally opened by H.R.H. Prince Arthur of Connaught on Saturday, June 22nd, 1912. Six floors of classrooms, a fine Concert Hall, administrative offices and a restaurant, all centrally heated, formed a luxurious contrast to the cramped out-of-date buildings in Tenterden Street.

THE DUKE'S HALL.

This fine Concert Hall, forming the East Wing of the building, accommodates a choir and orchestra of about 150 and an audience of nearly 700.

It contains a three-manual Organ (by Norman & Beard), the gift of the late Mrs. Threlfall in memory of her husband, Mr. Thomas Threlfall (Chairman of the Committee of Management, 1888-1907).

On the west wall of the Concert Hall is the Roll of Honour of students and professors who fell in the Great War.

A most important and useful addition to the resources and equipment of the Academy was formally opened by the President, H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, on Tuesday, October 19th, 1926. On a site immediately adjoining the main Academy building there has been erected an extension containing, in addition to classrooms, seating about 200 in the auditorium. The Theatre is equipped with stage, sunk orchestra and every modern adjunct for adequate production of plays, operas, etc.

THE DUKE'S THEATRE

Adjoining is the

which seats about 150 people.

THE LIBRARY

At the foundation of the Academy the Library was formed by various gifts and bequests, the nucleus being the important collection bequeathed by R. J. S. Stevens, Gresham Professor of Music. His Library consisted of a wide range of printed works of all schools.

Three years after the opening of the Academy, there came from H.M. King George IV. the handsome gift of the Arnold Edition and Score of Handel's Works. The letter announcing this was dated from Windsor, July 27th, 1825. There were over forty bound volumes, and at a later date they were supplemented by the Chrysander Edition.

Less extensive than the Stevens Collection, but contemporary with the early days of the century, were the gifts which the Founder, Lord Burghersh, afterwards the Earl of Westmorland, bestowed from time to time.

During the early decades, apart from gifts or bequests, the needs of an educational institution were predominant, and such additions as were made from time to time were more for the immediate hour than for the broader survey of the Art in every stage of its development. The interest in contemporary music and the increasing progress of contrasted schools of thought were influencing the friends and supporters of the Academy and giving proof of its value to the community.

Through the munificence of her children, the memory of Angelina Goetz is perpetuated in the Library that bears her name. It contains about 350 full orchestral scores of modern works. This was followed by a gift of the Library of C. A. Barry, well known in the musical world as "C.A.B.", as an annotator of orchestral works and in full sympathy with the compositions of his day. A large collection of Orchestral Scores and the complete collection of the Vocal Scores of Operas, Oratorios and Cantatas were the gift of the House of Messrs. Novello, as published by them. Church music of all periods and schools came from the Library of Arthur Prendergast of Winchester, and the executors of the late Alfred Kalisch, musical critic, presented a large number of Vocal Scores and Operas, as well as an extensive and invaluable number of bound copies of the "Musical Times," completing the series already in the Library.

From other sources the Library of Chamber Music was greatly enlarged. One of these was the gift of Mrs. Gustav Ellissen, whose husband in his lifetime had presented sets of miniature Scores of the Classics. The Ellissen Gift consists of 36 volumes of the Bach Gesellschaft publications, complete series of the Breitkopf & Haertel editions of the works of Beethoven, Brahms and Schumann, with Dvořák, Chopin, Mendelssohn and others well represented. Another source is the Velten Collection of the part-books of trios, quartets and similar compositions, but also including examples of the most advanced foreign Chamber Music. A large library, chiefly of modern Russian songs, was left to the Academy by Mrs. Anita Samson. In addition, Miss Agnes Zimmermann's complete library of the Classics and Madame Albanesi's memorial gift of her late husband's fine collection were of great importance and use.

It is worthy of note that all of the above Gifts were in sets and did not consist of loose pieces bought for some passing occasion.

The above Collections are for reference and study by Professors, Students and duly accredited persons every week-day during each term (special holidays excepted), from 10 to 1 and from 2 to 5 (Saturdays 10 to 12.30 only). Books and Music may be borrowed from 11.30 to 12.30 and 2.30 to 3.30 (Saturdays 11.30 to 12.30 only).

THE REFERENCE LIBRARY.

Comprises—in addition to the complete Editions of the works of Bach, Beethoven, Berlioz, Handel, Mozart, Purcell, Schubert, Schumann and Wagner, etc.—full Scores of Overtures, Symphonies and other Orchestral works, Dramatic and Choral works, Concertos for various Instruments ; a large collection of Sixteenth and Seventeenth Century Music ; early theoretical works and treatises, and many Manuscripts.

THE LENDING LIBRARY.

Comprises : Sheet Music and volumes of Solos, Duets, Studies, etc., for Pianoforte and other Instruments, Vocal Scores of Operas, Oratorios, Cantatas, Masses, etc., Chamber Music, Vocal Albums, Tutors, Theoretical Works and Music Literature ; also a collection of some 560 volumes, comprising the chief standard works in Prose and Poetry, and Text-books on English Literature, left to the Library in 1922 by Miss Annie M. Child, who was a Professor of Elocution at the R.A.M. for many years. This splendid bequest is of the greatest help and educational value to Students, especially to those whose studies include Elocution and the Drama.

STUDENTSHIP.

Students are not admitted for a shorter period than one year, viz., three consecutive terms, and are required to take the full curriculum. Overseas Students may receive special consideration at the discretion of the Principal.

Students are admitted at the beginning of each term or half-term. In the Senior School there is no limitation of age, but Pupils entering the Junior School must be under sixteen years of age. A separate prospectus is issued for the Junior School, and special arrangements are made to avoid interference with the ordinary education of the junior pupil.

ENTRANCE EXAMINATION.

This Examination is held to enable the Principal to judge of the general fitness of the applicant for admission as a Student, and to ascertain the degree of proficiency already attained. Candidates are required to perform pieces of their own choice in the Principal and Second Studies. There is no written examination.

The allocation of Students to Professors is left absolutely to the discretion of the Principal.

The Principal will, however, be pleased to consider the wishes of intending Students, provided that these be intimated before the conclusion of the examination.

STUDIES.

Principal and Second Studies are selected from the list on p. 19, but all music Students are expected to take Pianoforte as one of their subjects.

Additional subjects may be taken (either extra to the Principal Study, or extra to or in lieu of Second Study). For fees see pp. 23 and 24.

Any change in the Student's curriculum, whether of subject or of Professor, must be approved by the Principal or Warden in writing. Students are not permitted to negotiate directly with Professors with reference to such changes.

Students who complete three years (nine terms) and Scholars and Exhibitioners with the same length of studentship whose scholarships and exhibitions have expired may take a specially reduced curriculum with a corresponding reduction in fees.

The Academy is a recognised School of the University of London, and Students are prepared for the Musical Degrees of London and the other British Universities.

ATTENDANCES.

While every care is taken to avoid unnecessary attendances on the part of Students, they are strongly advised to take full advantage of the opportunities which the Academy affords. In order to do this, they should be prepared to attend on three or four days in each week.

Students must attend at least 75 per cent. of their lessons and classes and, in addition, such Lectures during the "Review Weeks" as the Principal may determine. Failure to make the required proportion of attendances will render the Student ineligible to receive any Award at the Annual Examinations, unless specially exempted by the Principal.

If Students are unavoidably prevented from attending any lesson or class, they are required to give notice in advance direct to the Professors concerned. In cases of illness other than of a minor character, notice must be sent to the Secretary, together with a Medical Certificate.

To obtain the highest Awards of the Academy, a Course of at least three years' study is requisite.

At least fourteen days' notice of the removal of a Student is required. Failing the due receipt of such notice by the Secretary, the fees for half a term are payable.

The Committee of Management reserve the right to refuse the entry or re-entry of any Student or Pupil of the Junior School without giving any reasons for such refusal.

SUB-PROFESSORSHIPS.

All Students are taught with a view to the possibility of their becoming teachers and, as a mark of particular distinction, advanced Students are appointed Sub-Professors, and are required to give instruction in the Academy under the supervision of their Professors. This appointment is for a period not exceeding three years, and is relinquished if the Student leave the Academy before the expiration of the period.

The Academy is in a position to supply the names of suitable candidates, together with full particulars of their Academic record and qualifications. All applications will receive most careful consideration, and every effort will be made to put applicants into touch only with those who, by temperament and training, are considered to be suitable for the post in question.

STUDENTS' ADDRESSES.

Failure to comply with this requirement will, in all cases, render the Student liable for any consequences which may ensue.

HOSTELS FOR STUDENTS.

For the convenience of Parents, Guardians and Students, a list of persons who are desirous of receiving Students as boarders is available. References as to the fitness and respectability of these persons have been received by the Academy, but the Committee of Management has no authority or control over them, and cannot accept any responsibility with reference to the establishments concerned. This list is open to inspection at all times, and a copy thereof will be sent to the parents or friends of intending Students on application to the Secretary.

An Orchestral Concert is given at Queen's Hall every term.

THE STRING ORCHESTRA

meets on Wednesday afternoons from two to four o'clock. Students are specially allocated to this Orchestra by the Principal. Regular Concerts are given in the Duke's Hall.

THE CONDUCTORS' ORCHESTRA

meets on Friday mornings from ten to one o'clock. Members of the Conductors' Course have the opportunity of gaining practical experience by conducting this Orchestra in prepared works.

THE ENSEMBLE CLASSES

are held for the purpose of enabling Students to obtain practice in Ensemble playing of all kinds, and also the opportunity of hearing their own compositions. A Quartet of experienced String Players is engaged for the special purpose of affording pianists the opportunity of practising Ensemble works in which the pianoforte is an important factor. The following special performances have been given in the Duke's Hall :—

In addition to these special Concerts, a large number of performances take place during the Academic Year.

OPERA AND BALLET.

The study of Opera is carried on as an adjunct to the training of Singers, all of whom are expected to take part in the Operatic Class when sufficiently advanced.

Frequent Operatic performances take place in the Duke's Theatre in the Academy building throughout the year. For many years a week's performances of Opera have been given at a metropolitan theatre, during which as many as three different operas have been performed in their entirety with different casts.

Every effort is made to enable suitably qualified Students to obtain experience in principal, secondary and chorus parts. Advanced Students are given opportunities of acquiring experience in producing and stage-managing.

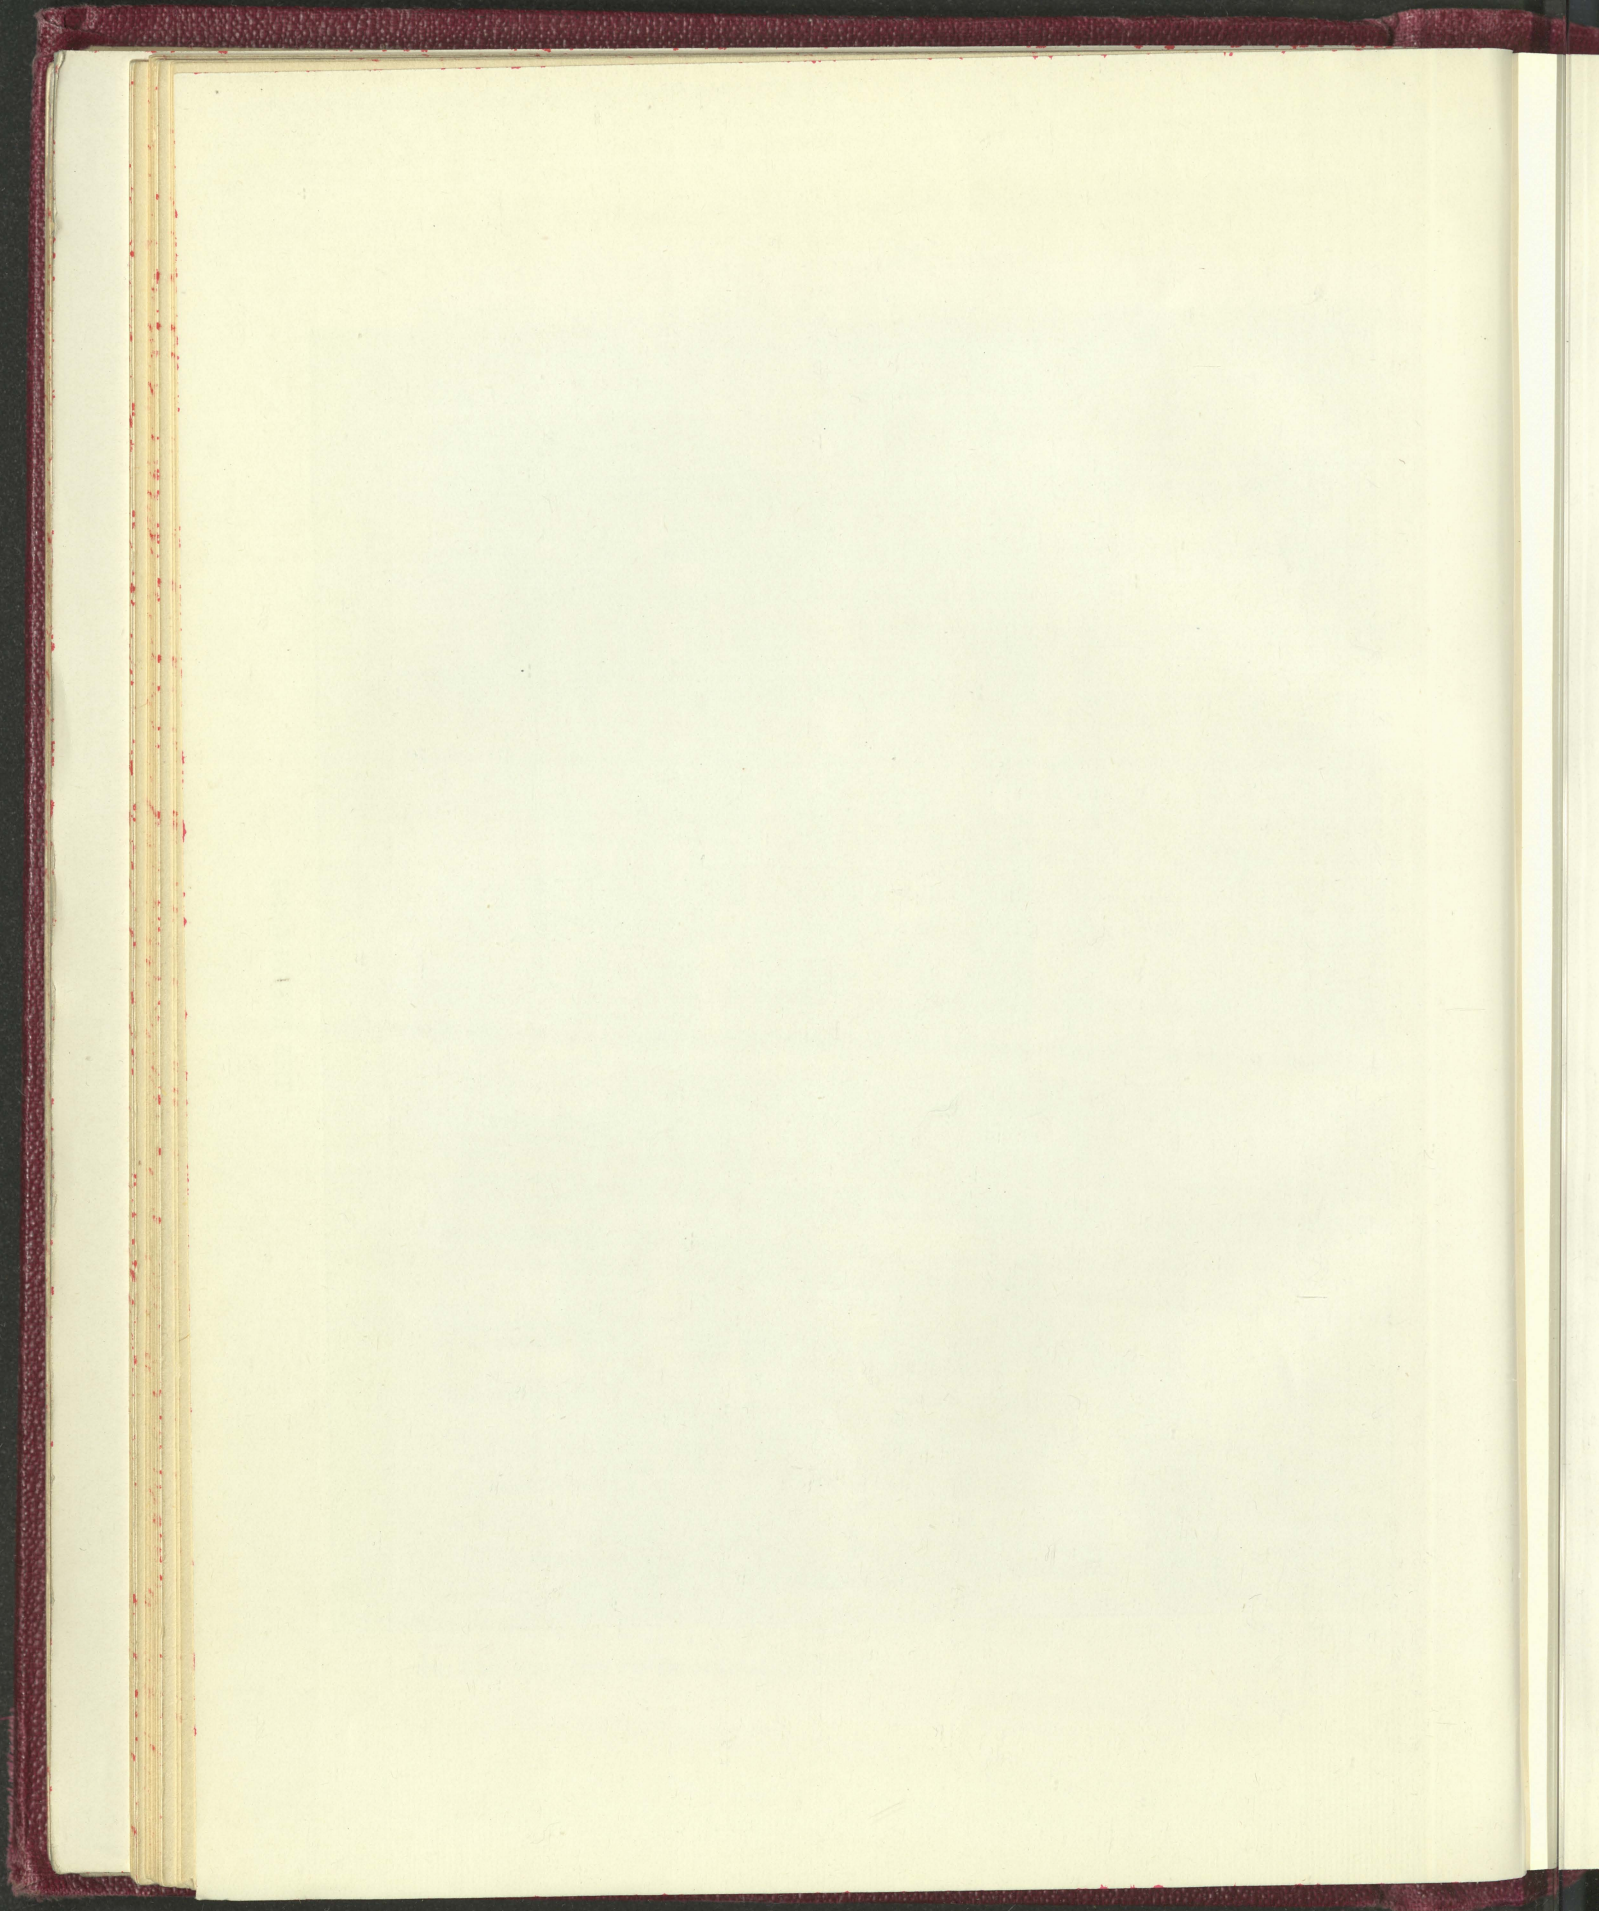

DRAMA.

Plays, both classical and modern, are rehearsed and, when ready, are performed at the end of each term in the Duke's Theatre and elsewhere. Advanced Students have opportunities of acting as producers and stage-managers at public performances.

The first public performances of Opera by Students of the Royal Academy of Music date from 1828, but a complete list of the Operatic and Dramatic works which have been performed since that date would be too lengthy to be included here.

The R.A.M. Club was founded in 1889, with the object of promoting friendly intercourse between those who are, or have been, connected with the Royal Academy of Music. Meetings—Social and Musical—are held periodically, and the R.A.M. Magazine, published each term, is sent to all members.

Past and present Students, Professors, and some others are eligible for membership. Further particulars may be obtained from the Hon. Secretary of the Club, at the Royal Academy of Music.

Present Students may belong to the "Students' Branch" which arranges Social and Sports meetings.

SUPERANNUATION FUND.

In 1925 a Superannuation Fund on a contributory basis was established for the benefit of the Professorial and Clerical Staffs of the Royal Academy of Music.

Under this scheme, any member of these staffs who reaches the retiring age enters into the enjoyment of a Pension, the annual payments of which, if so desired, can be commuted for a proportionate single payment.

THE PHILIP LESLIE AGNEW FUND.

Through the sympathetic generosity of the late Chairman of the Committee of Management a Fund was established on the 22nd September, 1927, the purposes of which—to quote the governing declaration of trust—are:—

"For exceptional expenditure in such manner as the Committee of Management may from time to time consider conducive to the artistic work of the Academy including temporary financial assistance of any member of the Professional or Clerical Staffs or any Student or employee of the Academy in the opinion of the Committee of Management in need of such assistance. Generally for the promotion of the objects for which the Academy was incorporated in such manner as the Committee of Management may from time to time decide, but subject to the following limitations (that is to say) no part of the dividends or income of the fund shall be applied in or towards: Payment of the Tuition Fees of Students of the Academy; The provision of Scholarships or Prizes or other awards for proficiency; Defraying the ordinary current expenses of the Academy."

STUDENTS' AID FUND.

It is open to any person to assist Students by paying the whole or any portion of their fees, by subscribing to the Students' Aid Fund, or by founding Exhibitions.

The Students' Aid Fund consists of a Capital sum of about £4,800 contributed in the course of the last forty-seven years by friends of the Academy and patrons of the Art, the interest on which is advanced for the purpose of reducing the fees of deserving Students.

In administering this Fund—which is all too small to meet the demands made on it—the most careful consideration is paid to the circumstances and qualifications of each beneficiary.

While the eventual repayment of the sums advanced is not made a condition of benefit, the Committee of Management welcome all efforts made to testify in this practical manner to the value and usefulness of the Fund.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

There are 164 Scholarships, Exhibitions and Prizes in active operation at present, and the corpus of each fund (with few exceptions) is registered with the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds.

The inclusion of all the details of so large a number of Scholarships and Exhibitions in this Prospectus is impossible. A separate Scholarships Prospectus is published and may be had on application to the Secretary.

An abridged summary of information with regard to Scholarships and Exhibitions is given here for convenience :—

Institution of Scholarships and Prizes.

Scholarships are founded by the Academy, Public Corporations, or by private individuals, under conditions approved by the Committee of Management of the Academy.

The tenure of Scholarships vary from one to five years. They are awarded by competition subject to the acceptance by the Candidate of the General Regulations of the Academy and of the curriculum arranged by the Principal.

The holder of any Scholarship or Exhibition is, during its tenure, ineligible to hold any other Scholarship or Exhibition. If in the opinion of the Examiners no candidate shows sufficient merit or ability, the award may be withheld. Scholars and Exhibitioners are subject to periodic examination, and if satisfactory proof of progress be not given, the Committee of Management may declare the Scholarship vacant and hold a new election for the residue of the term thereof.

Before entering the Academy each Scholar or Exhibitioner is required to sign an Agreement binding him or her to obey the rules of the Academy and to remain for the entire term of the Scholarship except when prevented by illness or some other exceptional or unavoidable cause.

THE ASSOCIATED BOARD OF
THE ROYAL SCHOOLS OF MUSIC, LONDON

(The Royal Academy of Music and The Royal College of Music)

FOR LOCAL EXAMINATIONS IN MUSIC

CENTRAL OFFICE—14 & 15 BEDFORD SQUARE, LONDON, W.C.1.

It is a matter of interest and importance that the Students of the Academy should realise the significance of the operations of the ASSOCIATED BOARD OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC AND THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC. This Board was established in 1889, to provide by its Local and Schools Examination tests of the teaching of music throughout the Kingdom, and a stimulus to the teachers. The field of its activities has widened immensely during these years, and the Board is now responsible every year for the examination of several thousands of candidates.

Further, the Board has established a considerable number of Exhibitions at both Institutions, which are awarded on the results of these examinations. Thus, many pupils of the Royal Academy of Music owe their musical education to the Board.

The work of the Associated Board in music is very similar to that of the Joint Board of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge in general education, for the examination of schools, and the awarding of certificates.

In order that the standard of the examinations may be kept to the highest level, the Professors at the R.A.M. and R.C.M. are mainly responsible for the examining work. They are selected as far as practicable in equal numbers from the two Institutions. As it is impossible to avoid some part of these examinations taking place in term time, pupils may be sure that, if their Professors are called upon to be away for the inside of a week in any term on this important work, all lessons belonging to that week will be made up in the most effective way with the least disturbance of the Students' work.
